District 5500 Celebration Day this May 17th

Promoted as a celebration of the accomplishments of the 2007-08 Rotary year, the event has been planned for the Castle Rock at 6245 E. Bellevue in Tucson. Features of the day's events include:

- 4-Way Test speech contest finals
- Inbound GSE presentation - Japanese team
- "Grate Groan-Up Spelling Bee" involving three member teams from each club who will raise at least $50 per person for Rotary's polio eradication effort (part of the match for the multi-million grant from the Gates Foundation.)
- See President Mark for questions and registration.

Market report

Robert Lehnhardt, Merrill-Lynch

The Dow Jones was down 135 points; and oil is a whopping $119 a barrel. McDonalds, the world's largest restaurant chain continues to have soaring sales.

Polsky & Co.

Polsky terrorized several members and socked it to those sitting at the same table as the previous week, not wearing a Rotary pin and/or not making up.

The program

April 22, 2008

The club hosted Joelee Schnelle, Nicole Lucas and Giau Le, Sahaurita High seniors who were finalists in the Speech Contest. Their topic was "The Four-way Test."

Lucas, who will be a music education major next fall at the U of A, spoke about the Four-way Test and election 2008.

Schnelle, who will attend NAU next semester as a music major, spoke on "What is the Four-way Test?"

Le, who will major in nursing at the U of A, chose the topic of "The Four-way Test as a model for society.";

The winners of the Essay Test were Lucas, $125; Le, $100; and Cynthia Bowman, $75.

Winners of the Speech Contest were Schnelle, $200; Le, $150; and Lucas, $100. Schnelle will continue on to the District 5500 Celebration Day May 17.
