Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar Annalyn Censky's reports continue

Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar Annalyn Censky

Dick Roberts continues to maintain e-mail communications with Annalyn who was first introduced to our club in 2001. Dick shared her latest e-mail dated April 18, 2009. An excited and exhilarated Annalyn reported on her continuing experiences in Prague,

Czech Republic. Again she thanked Rotary for the scholarship and noted attending Rotary meetings these past seven months are better than any University class experience obtained over four years of study.

Annalyn said:

- She rubs elbows with some of Prague's finest leaders, who often give her priceless real world, down-to-earth advice.
- The real world is her classroom. She feels lucky to be in on discussions about the world economic situation, possibly enhanced by the fact the Czech government's turn at the presidency of the EU is now in effect.
- The guest speakers range from business leaders to ambassadors. Having made contacts with ambassadors from the U.S., Peru and Switzerland, she has received a short course on EU relations.

The Program

April 21, 2009

Anndrea Blackshear, substituting for Donna Gallagher, introduced Chamber of Commerce President Jim Green

In recalling events of 2007, Jim noted the chamber changed its name to include Sahuarita. Jim Green is now in his second year as president.

There are many committees in the chamber structure. Volunteers are the backbone of the chamber.

The chamber has moved into new offices at 275 W. Continental Road between Walgreens and the Chase Bank. A special invitation was extended to Rotarians to attend an open house there on May 21. Pencil this in, Rotarians, and show your support for the chamber.

Comments about a bed tax are not being reported.

Special thanks to Bill Copeland for taking notes and securing information from other Rotarians for inclusion in this issue of The Desert Wheel
