Christina Myren, UPH public relations officer, said UPH took over Kino Community Hospital from Pima County in 2004. They partner with both the county and UofA and have a long term lease with the county. Here are some stats:

Overview	pre UPH	post UPH
patients/day	58	109
surgeries	304	2,216
ER visits	26,000	42,000
clinic visits	42,000	95,000

UPH has made $14 million in renovations and upgrades since 2005 and plans up to $40 million in new construction. Facilities will include 12 outpatient clinics, AZ Institute of Sports Medicine, a behavioral health pavilion, and a crisis recovery center.

James McClenathan, MD, talked about the need for more primary care in Green Valley.

UPH has a new clinic in the UMC building just south of the West Center here in Green Valley, but it is for specialty, not primary, care. Specialties are gastroenterology, obstetrics and gynecology, neurology, orthopedics, surgical oncology and urology.
