Treasurer Jim Mack

described Green Valley Rotarians as people who dig wells from which they never drink, restore eyesight for those they will never see, educate children they will never know, and know happiness that “can only be found by helping others.” This year we’ve gathered $19,000 in donations, and given $6000 to RI Foundation (Paul Harris), $5000 to the water project in Thailand, paid $6000 in dues to RI and District 5500, and parted with $4200 to the Fine-man.

Banner Exchange

Eugene Friesen gave President Mitch a banner from the Rotary Club of Song, Thailand, and we will send them one of ours.

Mary Jane Goodrick’s

Program – Amado-Sahuarita Adult Literacy

Jane Burns thanked the Club for 2 years’ support, and the 4 students she brought with her – Monica Garami, Jesus Celez, Monica Carrillo, Nancy Encinas – did the same. Their experiences reflect the variety of Adult Literacy programs: English as a second language, citizenship preparation, and GED test preparation.

The program is staffed entirely by volunteers, 45 as of September 2009. It receives funds from White Elephant, Rotary, and a variety of other sources. Classes are offered at Sahuarita High School library, Thursdays, 6 – 8 pm, and Sopori Elementary School cafeteria, Mondays, 6 – 8 pm.
